3. AMTLB ESTABLISHMENT INFORMAL DISCIPLINE GUIDELINES AND CONSENT ORDER SHELLS

Ms. Henley reported that with the passage of amendments to the AMTLB law, additional disciplinary options are now available to AMTLB for resolution of cases. As such, counsel has updated the guidelines for information disposition to reflect the new range of disciplinary options and has drafted shell consent orders to reflect those new options. Additional shells are expected in the future as the need becomes apparent.

On June 23, 2025, Mr. Henderson, Jr., moved that the Board approve the Alabama Massage Therapy Licensing Board (AMTLB) Establishment Informal Discipline Guidelines and Consent Order Shells for the use by Alabama Massage Therapy Licensing Board (AMTLB) staff in resolving cases related to establishments. Ms. Ranger seconded. Motion carried without objection.

4. AMTLB LMT INFORMAL DISCIPLINE GUIDELINES AND CONSENT ORDER SHELLS

Ms. Henley reported that with the passage of amendments to the AMTLB law, the additional disciplinary options are now available to AMTLB for resolution of cases. As such, counsel has updated the guidelines for information disposition to reflect the new range of disciplinary options and has drafted shell consent orders to reflect those new options. Additional shells are expected in the future as the need becomes apparent.

On June 23, 2025, Ms. Long moved that the Board approve the Alabama Massage Therapy Licensing Board (AMTLB) LMT

Informal Discipline Guidelines and Consent Order Shells for use by Alabama Massage Therapy Licensing Board (AMTLB) staff in resolving cases related to licensed massage therapists (LMT's). Mr. Boone seconded. Motion carried without objection.

5. AMTLB EMERGENCY ORDER, POLICY, AND ORDER

Ms. Henley reported that with the passage of amendments to the AMTLB law, the Executive Director is authorized to suspend operations at a massage therapy establishment without a prior hearing in certain enumerated circumstances when there is an immediate risk to public safety. The policy has been drafted to ensure that such actions meet statutory and regulatory requirements and that due process is preserved for the affected establishments. Shells have also been created for the notice to be posted on the front door of the establishment and for the complaint that must be used to the establishment within three days of the posted notice.

On June 23, 2025, Ms. Long moved that the Board to approve the Alabama Massage Therapy Licensing Board (AMTLB) Emergency Order, Policy, and Order for the use by Alabama Massage Therapy Licensing Board (AMTLB) staff to implement the new law permitting the Executive Director to issue emergency orders suspending an establishment's operations without a hearing when public safety is at immediate risk. Ms. Ranger seconded. Motion carried without objection.
